ADVANCING THE COMMON GOOD

My name is Frank Liaggio. I have proudly called Hernando County home since 1975. I would like to thank the United Way improving our lives and communities. Today, more than ever, when the challenges we face can seem overwhelming, it is important to recognize that good things happen when we focus our collective energy on the issues that matter most. United Way is committed to changing lives and local conditions by focusing on the building blocks for a high quality life. Research and experience shows that these are: a quality education, a stable income, good health and the ability to meet one's basic needs. When these needs are met, we all succeed; our neighborhoods become healthier and stronger, our schools improve and our businesses prosper.

We are fortunate to live and work in a region that is rich in opportunity and in talented, hard-working, caring individuals. My family has been deeply blessed by many United Way supported organizations. I also have had opportunities to learn and grow while helping others through the United Way; always a tremendous gift of learning experience. Thank you for sharing your gifts of resources, skills, time and energy for the benefit of your neighbors and community. Your efforts are appreciated and valued beyond measure. Its generous people are what make Hernando County a world-class home.

GIVE. ADVOCATE. VOLUNTEER.
